Introduction

The most important aspect of Laguna Blanca's education is the life at the school, itself. Although the school has grown tremendously, there is nevertheless an impressive, and ever-increasing amount of communication between the faculty and the students. We have great pride in the extent to which the understanding and compatibility between students and teachers have increased. Such activities as open discussions on diverse topics have given faculty and students the opportunity to meet each other as people with often very similar ideas. The close contact and rapport between Laguna's students and teachers is one of the most valuable assets of our school.

In preparing La Honda '68, the editors and staff have established as their principal objective the candid portrayal of this congenial atmosphere, which will always be among our most cherished memories of our experience at Laguna Blanca.

Dedication

We, the senior class of 1968, wish to dedicate this year's La Honda to Mr. Clarke Allen Gaines. His teaching prowess has instilled in his students an active interest in the history and culture of their society, and thus, a greater understanding and appreciation of their country and their way of life. He enlivens his courses with a personal enthusiasm that stimulates his students to think and learn beyond their requirements. Ever since Mr. Gaines came to Laguna Blanca six years ago, he has shown an interest in the students of the school, both in his concern for all of his students as individuals, and also in his contributions to student activities. Above all Mr. Gaines' perpetual cheerfulness and smiling face raise the morale of everyone he meets on campus.

We, the Class of 1968, wish to take this opportunity to express our gratitude to Mr. Gaines for all he has done for us and for everyone at Laguna.

FACULTY

From The Headmaster's Desk

Considering the capabilities of the staff responsible for the preparation of this yearbook, there is no question that within these pages one will find an inspiring, comprehensive and sprightly account of the Class of 1968 during their final months as students at Laguna Blanca School. The spirit of the school and the life of its students during the school year 1967-'68 as shown through the various formal and candid accounts in pictures and words will reflect much that will be meaningful for sometime to come.

There are many important characteristics of the Class of 1968 that will assure this class a place of preeminence in the permanent annals of the school. In addition to its being the largest graduating class up to this time, the record made by the class in scholarship, athletics, and other activities will properly reflect for future generations the talent that marks so many of its members.

Even above the statistical evidence which is so impressive, I believe the class stands most prominently because of its spirit of cheerful cooperation and generous service. With much independence and concern for self marking our often troubled days, one could always depend on the thoughtful concern and lively response from individual members or from the class as a whole.

In bidding goodbye to this unusual group I deeply regret that we will not know them again as a unified company, but I am sure that we will all take pride and inspiration in the inevitable outstanding achievements that the individual members of this class will enjoy.

God bless and God speed you all on your way!

Senior Wills

I, Bradford Adams, being of fuzzy head which, of course, means of fuzzy mind, do will and bequeath the following: to Pam one "You Big. . ." to Don Wallace one Big Stick with a snap and supremacy in Spanish, to Mr. Spaulding, my back and nonsensical talk, and finally to Mr. Cramer my conservative and stubborn ways.

I, Jeff Adams, being of doubtful mind, do will and bequeath my knowledge of Latin to anyone foolish enough to take it, my undone English assignments to Mr. Cramer, my car to Mr. Tierney because of the similarity in size, and finally, my most heartfelt thanks to Rand for his party.

I, Nancy Adams, being of a questionably sound mind do bestow my cheerleader sweater to Col. Roberson; a chair from the China Peak chair lift to Kit; the ice cream store to anyone stupid enough to want it; a pair of used knee boots to Sally H. and Paige; 18 stale graham crackers to Nina Lewis; and my notorious voice to Mr. Spaulding.

I, Michael "Gilhooley" Adcock, being mostly Gilhooley do gleefully bequeath: unto the Colonel, my accidental 737; to Mrs. Hansen, a perpetual nude model; unto the Biology Lab, a sweet melody; unto Holly, my admiration for doing her own thing; my inimitable ability for Byrd-calls to Mrs. Escobar; lastly to Erik and Tom our own tree in Lorien.

I, Maria T. B. etcetera etcetera do herby etcetera one of each to each of you, two purple dots to you and you; I also want you to have whatever you want: orange baseballs to the baseball players, loud yells for Laguna; and a rope for life to those who haven't had to begin this etcetera etcetera.

I, Brad Bartholomay, will my soccer shoes to Erik Black; my skiing legs to Brad Hall; my ability for picking out unique girls to Bayard Potter; and finally I will all that I have learned from my past experiences to those who will benefit by them.

I, Nero David Myrick the Duck Baze Bazy Bazemore, having no mind that can be sane or otherwise, do hereby bestow upon the following persons the following items: to Kendal Cramer, Boris the spider and his house; to the 5th grade girls all the time I spent in their art classes; and to Mr. Spaulding my scissors and thinning shears. So be it.

I, Frederick Brander, will and bequeath the following: my magnificent build to Brad Witmer, to the Selezinka brothers, my Junior you-make-it atomic bomb kit, to Rafer Johnson my high school decathlon record, to Don Wallace my fluency in Spanish.

I, Barry Burnell, being of unscrupulous and perverted mind do hereby will my fantastic role in Neronia to Olga Smallpage, my ability to do things warranting Dunce Fund contributions in physics and chemistry to Mark Woerner, a year's supply of drumsticks to the Hall Sisters, and my brothers to any of the faculty unfortunate enough to have to teach them.

I, Campbell, being of pure and ungrossed-out mind, bequeath to Brad W. anyone in my family he wants, basketball scorer to anyone who is stupid enough to do it, my height to "the little dude," to Bryan B. Grandma's chocolate chip cookies, the basketball team to Deb D. and the Halls, and finally I donate my little brother to science.

I, Pakie Carleton, being sound in mind and body, do hereby will: to Corky Miles, my big car; to Holly Haugh, my tendency to be late to meetings, particularly ones at which I am supposed to take notes; to Libby Smyth, my position as "pretendante", and to Cathy Adcock, my big brother.

I, Steve "Lips" Dietrich, being of questionable intelligence and sanity, do hereby bequeath my little sister to the Biology Lab as rat food; to the shortest underclassman in the school my fantastic prowess in basketball; to the ninth grade girls, lots of love; and to Mr. Tierney, a year's supply of True.

I, David Van Zandt Eddy, being of absent mind and corpulent stomach, do hereby bequeath to Mr. Spaulding my little brother's hair, to next year's seniors a bunch of luck, to Mrs. Hanssen Twiggy's wardrobe, and last of all, to everyone, happiness in looking forward to the first semester of their senior year.

I' Erik (Kong) Funke, being of inimitable mind and/or body, do hereby and forthwith will to Kristina a bag of purees and steelies, my favorite tree to Hilly H. so that she may learn where it's at, a bit of flit and 200 unsold raffle tickets to Mr. Tierney, 800 forgotten mental notes to Mr. Cramer, my acting prowess to next year's Nero, student government and the senior preserve to whoever wants it, and flowers to everybody.

I, Roger Halloran Goodspeed, being neither here nor there, do will and bequeath the following items to those poor wretches who are left behind me at Laguna: to Mr. Gaines and Mr. Peterson three cans of tape and one pair of slightly sprained ankles, "the #8 play to Bob Lindsey, and finally I leave my title of "Santa Barbara Fats" and my custom pool cue to Brian Noon.

I, Robert Hoag, being of good mind and bad intentions, do hereby will a ticket for 100 free Honda rides to Cathy Adcock, my parking space to Mr. Polley, my Camaro to anyone who can drive it, many noisy study halls to Mr. Spaulding, and many happy parties to Ruth Spaulding.

I, Bryan Kemnitzer, being of plentiful mind do will the following rarities: to Geoff Gates my great ability to snowplow down Razorback; to Corky, the senior store, to Mr. Tierney my German ability, to Mrs. Hansen 10 gallons of milk, and finally my locker to any unlucky junior.

Ich, so ich hier stehe, Hanspeter Knirsch, give my great book about the new rules of baseball to the whole school. Brad Adams will get my knowledge of the Spanish language. Col. Roberson gets my last Peace Sign. Mr. Peterson gets a dictionary about the spelling "Weltauschauung."

I, Thomas Sebastian Lackner, being of small mind, and stout body, do will the following to various ungratefals: my title of most unshaven person in school to Robbie Bertranda, my drum set to Philip Behlman, Lucas preserved in the Biology Lab to perpetually keep a Lackner in the school.

I, John Michael Lindsey, do bequeath the Senior Lawn to the 10th grade girls, parties to the Sophomores, a big smile to A.O'B., my strong stomach and superior academic prowess to Kate in hopes for the future, and THE book on driving skills to B. W.

I, Mila Lee Ott, being a simpleton at heart, do hereby will the following: the Heggie Room heater to next year's cold-blooded students; my middle name to anyone who enjoys being a Southern belle; and my 100-hour candy striper pin to "le Vieillard," who deserves it.

I, Claire Panosian, anticipating with mixed emotions the staking out of a new sandbox, regret that I must leave my present playthings for more advanced toys. Therefore, I do bequeath my lorgnette to Mr. Tierney; my colored pencils to Mr. Schuyler; my official El Tec electric cattle prod to Jennifer and Chi Chi; my fluorescent green broom to future Fall Festivals, and, lastly, all my unpublished manuscripts to Mr. C.

I, Susan Williams Reddan, with tears in green contacts, do bequeath the following; my dietetic willpower(!) and my ceaseless ability to find out everything to Pam Holm; my craving for pink to Nina Potter; my Scarlett O'Hara figure to Kathy Spaulding; and my infamous boogaloo to Mrs. Hansen in hopes that she will continue to keep in pace with the "mod generation."

I, Ralph Rogers, being of blown mind and rapidly deteriorating body do hereby will my astounding ability for tolerating stupidity to Mike Bartok and John Adams, and what is left of my brain to science. I also leave to Mr. Adams and the Board of Directors my grateful thanks for letting me in out of the cold.

I, Sam Spaulding, do will to Corky my moustache and the title of "dude;" to Eddie Craviotto my soccer shoes; to Brady a place with the Notorious Byrd Brothers; and to my sister, Katherine, the everlasting title of "svelte." To Billy I bequeath those shoes which have caused so many blisters and hardships, and lastly my guitar pick to anyone who plays nothing but those songs that are for the Byrds.

I, insidiously known as Jeanne Brett Stearns, upon contemplation of my nonexistence at Laguna next year, do hereby empower my father to dispose of all materials herein disclosed in forthcoming will. I empower Kit Hershey to deal with all future T-bar operators, being most experienced in that sort of thing. Finally to Tin Lizzie Shannon and her friends, I entrust the care and feeding of Mrs. Hansen, and anything she left in the Art Room.

I, Nicolette Flore Tal, of negligible mind, do nevertheless hereby bequeath all superfluous prepositions of this passage herein to the Colonel, heretofore. To Kathy Spaulding, I leave my athletic prowess; to Holly Hough, my unprecedented punctuality; and to Mrs. Hansen, I will a new trend of maxi-skirts. Last and obviously least, I leave to Mago, Corky Miles for his morning recess snack.

I, Clare Randolph Taylor, being of weak mind and sturdy body, hereby leave the Service Club in the capable hands of Holly Haugh; the yearbook unfinished; my '62 VW to anyone who can start it and keep it going; my microscope to Mrs. Kladnik; my prowess in French to Colonel Roberson; my menagerie to anyone who will care for and feed them and my position as Laguna's heavy weight champion unchallenged.

I, Ernie Underhay, being of astute judgement and stooped body do hereby and forthwith bequeath my Rolls-Royce to Herman; my ability to run cross country to Glen Wright; my lunch to Mrs. Hansen; my Paramecia to anyone who wants them; and my title of School Projectionist to anyone who can keep Peter Schuyler from damaging the projector.

I, Nancy Webb, of soundly unsound body and unquestionably questionable mind, do hereby make my first will and testimony leaving: to Pam Holm, my "Cuentos" and my youth dew; to Robbie Bertrando, my Physics grades; to Brandy Luton, my unwritten term paper; to Barney, my hand-rolled cigars; to Mrs. Baranano, my fingernails; to my sisters, my good luck and college acceptances.

I, Little Egypt, alias Winn Wheeler, do bequeath all of my pesky question about colleges to any deserving junior who wishes to annoy Mr. Cramer; to Mrs. Hansen, a new spring for the Spouse Trap; to Leslie, Nina, and Liz, all of my ninth-place ribbons; my shocking pink tight skirt to the next Fifi; Toadpipe to Lewis; and a slightly used race horse to Mr. Tierney.

I, Rand Wilson, possessing the most stable mind that anybody could ever want to have do will my Mickey Mouse T-shirt to the next Bruno; my Mickey Mouse Cap to Kathy Spaulding; my ear plugs to the S.B.P. so that he may use them in all the ASL meetings; my sailing prowess to Peter Schuyler; and to my sister Kim my deepest sympathy for having to follow up the Wilson reputation.

UPPER SCHOOL

Juniors

FRONT ROW: Ellen Brien, Libby Smyth, Pam Holm, Jennifer Harbury, Chauncy Andros. SECOND ROW: Robbie Bertrando, Sally Webb, Marcie Gaiser, Kathy Spaulding, Holly Haugh, Mark

Woerner. THIRD ROW: Don Wallace, Eric Black, Gary Horton, Brad Witmer, Ed Underhay, Larry Levy. MISSING: Brian Noon.

The class of '69 obviously tries harder although "harder than what" is a question ably ignored by our taco-tired President, Holly Haugh, and our Prom-weary Vice President, Pam Holm. Libby Smyth is our secretary and official tennis bum and the infamous Kathy Spaulding hoards our meager pennies.

Among Laguna's winning all-stars are Eric Black, Brad Witmer, Gary Horton, Mark Woerner and Brian Noon, most of whom are known also for other accomplishments

Don Wallace specializes in art and architecture while Chauncy Andros manages to combine journalism and archeology. Our ever-reliable literary critic is Ed Underhay and Marcie Gaiser is our devoted horsewoman.

Unusually patient and voluntary servants to the class are Jennifer Harbury and Sally Webb, both new to the school, as is Larry Levy, who adds his own interpretation to all class projects. Robbie Bertrando and Chi-Chi Bien, both directly or indirectly under Mr. Tierney's influence, add character.

What do we try harder for? Perhaps to earn a reputation as the best-adjusted class in Laguna history, considering the circumstances . . .

Holly Haugh

Sophomores

This year the sophomores started out enthusiastically in one of Laguna's best years ever. The Katherines became the leaders in class politics, with President Hershey, Vice President O'Brien, Secretary Adcock and Treasurer Gring.

The athletic set includes Dave and Bill on J.V. soccer, Mike as a fullback on the champion Varsity Soccer Team and Bob, who starred as our Varsity goalie. Debbie, Ruth, Kendal and Nina make up our 2:00 to 3:00 tennis team, and Laurie is one of our best riders.

Ben is our noted pacifist and John is our psychedelic artist, while Kathy D. exerts her efforts in avoiding study halls.

Brandy and Vickie have the pleasure of Barney's company every morning coming over the San Marcos Pass.

Holly, Tish, Sylvia and Ann will always be four of our friendliest, and two of our new students, Kathy H. and Jim, along with Leslie, help out providing the brains of our class.

We have a great class for the year of 1970!

Senior ice cream prices, Free Luv, and Latin 1 are a few of the things spinning in the consciousness of the great freshman class.

The thirteen new students have contributed immensely to the pinnacles of glory achieved under the leadership of Carl and Bryan, president and vice-president, and Phillip and Frannie, treasurer and secretary. Where indeed would the victorious third soccer team be without its backbone of ninth graders, many at Laguna for the first time? The new girls, too, were instrumental in the capture of the coveted volleyball championship.

With seven of our boys playing with the JV in soccer, a mediocre performance in sports by the girls would be easily expected. Rather than this, however, they have had a fine season, and were the deciding factor in our attainment of the unheard-of status of Number Two in the interclass swimming meet.

The school has benefited in many ways from this year's freshman class, tangible and intangible. Ranking in the forefront of our tangible accomplishments was our work in the Fall Festival. There, in addition to maintaining the ever-popular pony rides, we provided an oasis of Sno-Cones for the relief of overheated visitors to the fair.

Our happy association has aided in the rise to fame of such individuals as Peter Schuyler, Commodore of the Sailing Club. More than such an individual accomplishment, however, have been the pleasant friendships and good times that have grown out of daily school life, our parties, and such long-remembered events as our trip to the islands.

Eighth Grade

This year's eighth grade is divided into two sections, the class as a whole consisting of 33 students. Connie Behr and Hank Ehler have been at local junior high schools while Barbara March came from Westlake School, Kris Engberg moved out from New York City, Katya Shirokow came to us from Rome and Jody Webb from Catalina Island.

The Class President is Dwight Dereniowski, the Vice-President Katy Plumb, the Secretary Stuart Hanssen and the Treasurer Morgan Kolyn. Douglas Mickle was the captain of the successful 3rd soccer team followed by classmates Kim Morgan, Michael Smallpage, Jim Conner, Don Rose, Willie Bertrando and Bill Jones. Jim Campbell and Oliver Spalding played on the 4th soccer team, and Scott Mickle was unable to play soccer due to an operation on his foot. Corky Miles is a long distance runner. Among members of the Sailing Club are Sandy Willett, Ross Cheves, and Geoff Gates. Athletic girls Mimi McKittrick and Mary Laucks played on the JV Basketball team and Lisa Ulrich takes riding. Artistic Melissa Walker won the class poster contest for the Fall Festival.

The Eighth Grade is also a very active class academically. Liz Shannon, Bill Jennings and Jonathan Goodrich are all members of the 8th Grade Algebra class. The class as a whole, and Stephen Slavin in particular, are enthusiastic in the science course.

Seventh Grade

There are 21 members in this year's Seventh Grade. New members are Pete and Michael Ryan from Massachusetts; Pico Iyer returned from England. Steven Miles is the Class President, Kimberly Wilson the Vice-President, Patrick Lloyd-Butler the Secretary, and Sally Haskell is the Treasurer. Eddie Craviotto played on the 3rd Soccer Team while the rest of the boys, including Don Hamister, Bayard Potter, Randy Black and Dan Bartok, were on the 4th team. Ross Reddin took fencing and Stewart Sexton was a member of the Sailing Club.

Holly Guntermann was the captain of the girl's J. V. Basketball Team which Kathy Waldref also played on. Paige Reddan and Liz Miles are both horse enthusiasts. Karen Christians is a swimmer and competitive diver, but Diane Williamson prefers relaxing on the beach in her spare time. In November the class as a whole visited the Pre-Columbian Art exhibit at the Santa Barbara Museum of Art and later in the year most went to Disneyland.

Class Officers

SEVENTH GRADE: Vice-President—Kim Wilson, President—Steven Miles, Secretary—Patrick Lloyd-Butler, Treasurer—Sally Haskell.

LOWER SCHOOL

Sixth Grade

The 1967-68 Sixth Grade consists of twenty members. The class advisor is Mr. Reitz. New students in the class are: Sara and Susi Baranano who, a year ago, moved to Santa Barbara from Washington, D.C., Lianne Towbes, who has been attending Montecito Union School, and Brad Hall who recently moved from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. The class are interested in a variety of activities. Kathy Schuyler is a member of the sailing club. Diana Willett takes riding lessons, Virginia Kenly, piano lessons, and Cindy Byrd sings in a church choir. Also in the sailing club are Doug Alexander, Stephen Hochman, and Hugh Bream. Kerry Morgan is a keen horse rider and was recently in the Santa Barbara Horse Show. Clipper Erikson is interested in chemistry and in atomic energy. One of the best soccer players in the class is Bruce Spaulding. J.J. Jordano is doing well at center-half, and William Mickle is one of the best fullbacks. Every student in the class dissected insects for the biology course. David Conner's collection of sixty insects was the largest. Peter Nagel has made a superb sail boat in shop. Twelve people in the class learn a musical instrument and four learn more than one. Robbie Paratte plays the guitar and Chris Goodrich is learning the recorder. The class has taken two biology trips, one to the University to see the insect collection and one to Refugio to study stream insects, besides planning several others during the year.

Fifth Grade

SECOND ROW: Daniel Botkin, Holly Basham, David DeL'Arbre,

The Fifth Grade

This year the Fifth Grade numbers twenty-two,
Thirteen boys and nine girls make up the crew.
We have Spelling and Math, there's English to write,
Then to recess and the playfield with all our might.
We have History, Art and Shop, Science and French,
Then out to lunch at the table and bench.
Sports and Study Hall finish our day,
There's been lots of work and a little play.

Fourth Grade

THIRD ROW: Tracy Burnell, Bobby Maden, Amy Horton, David Colfax, Tony Gardner. MISSING: Sandra Schmandt.

We do a lot in Fourth Grade,
Singing in parts, French, and Math on a slate.
Art is still fun, and shop so new;
Seeing the News-Press—that was great!

We do a lot in Fourth Grade—
Current Events and play and Study Hall.
It shows the way to other grades
And we like it, all in all.

 My desk is very dirty, but I fly through work like a birdie.—Peter Edwards
 Many dogs go into the room, but we don't chase them with a broom.—Heather Kyne
 The reports are fun when they are done.—Roger Lewis
 I always bring things to share but never bring snakes to scare.—Brandy MacDougall
 I eat so much at lunch, but I never have punch.—David McLellan
 Sports is fun when I jump and run.—Polly Reddan
 Mathematics is a whiz. I get 100 on each quiz.—Kenny Riley
 A puppet show I recently gave. All the puppets I did save.—Hilary Ruston
 When the school bell rings at nine, I am always behind.—David Scott
 Baseball is lots of fun 'cause I don't have to run.—Roger Spaulding
 Insects we bring to class and keep them in a glass.—Harold Whiting

Second Grade

Chris Satterlee, Dow Jarvis, Lise Eschenroeder, Erik Barquist, George Hollister. MISSING: William Holderman.

Eager as beavers the whole year through,
Reading, spelling and arithmetic too.
We're up, we're down,
Look at us grow;
School is lots of fun you know!

Out to the playground
To run and play,
Then in again, is part of our day.
Listening and thinking and learning new things,
Could it be that this year has wings?

First Grade

Dent, Geoffrey Wyatt. THIRD ROW: Billy Scott, Diane Looman, Julie Gordon, Molly O'Hanlon, Linda Haskell, Robin Murfey. MISSING: Chipper Lewis.

So many exciting things we've done
We'll share with you, one by one.

Kindergarten pets—we had quite a batch.
In October we went to the Pumpkin Patch.
New friends we made so happily.
Dancing and singing came easily.
Enjoying stories with Mrs. Gerard.
Reading and writing were not very hard.
Gingerbread—yummy! (We made it ourselves.)
Arithmetic games and toys on the shelves.
Riding our tricycles on the playground.
The listening center for learning new sounds.
Experiments—things to talk and to hear.
Nojoqui Falls, the last trip of the year.

Now we are ready for the best trip of all—
Our trip to First Grade begins in the fall.

Inspired by the boisterous cheerleaders, led by Cathy Campbell, this year's soccer team had its best season in nineteen years. It posted a five-victory, one-tie winning season to capture the Condor League title. The team was driven on by its desire to win and the spectacular school spirit displayed by the Laguna fans and parents. Mr. Spaulding head coach, worked primarily with the forward line and developed a unit that succeeded in scoring more goals than any other team in the league. Colonel Roberson coached the backfield, which in every game demonstrated its tremendous defensive ability. Mike Bartok and Bob Lindsey were given the Most Improved Player awards, while Sam Spaulding was again named MVP. This successful season was not only an extremely gratifying experience for both players and coaches, but also provided a genuinely meaningful boost to the prestige and spirit of Laguna Blanca.

Varsity Basketball

Under the guidance of Mr. Peterson, who took over as coach for Mr. Gaines this year, the Varsity basketball team began practice immediately following the Thanksgiving recess. After a period of re-learning the offensive plays, the season began on December 5, with a game against the Bishop Garcia Diego Junior Varsity. The result was a 42-23 victory for Laguna. The team followed with two victories against Saint Anthony's Seminary, sandwiched around a loss to Dunn.

The league season began on January 20th with a thrilling double-overtime victory over Dunn. Following the semester break the team had two poor performances against Thacher and Cate, which resulted in losses. These eliminated Laguna from the league championship but the team nevertheless ended the year with convincing victories over Ojai and Midland. The final standings showed Laguna tied for third place in the league with a 3-2 record. The season record of 6-3 was one of the best in Laguna's history and the team and coach are to be commended for their efforts.

J.V. Basketball

This year's Junior Varsity, coached by Mr. De Necochea, had their best season in years, completing a 2-3 record with two very close losses. The team improved steadily with each successive game and narrowly lost to their opponents from Thatcher and Cate. The final two games were won by convincing margins, the highlight of the season being the defeat of OVS, 62-21. This team gives Laguna hope for future success in basketball. Jeff Reddan and John Adams played forward with Bryan Burnell and Mike Smallpage playing guard and Mike Bartok as center. Robbie Bertrando and Murray Aldrich were very able reinforcements.

Cross Country

Only the members of the cross country team will ever know the agony suffered in a cross country meet. No matter how hard we tried, our team was not able to beat Thacher. In the five meets that we had this season, our team placed second in every one. The highlight of the season was Sam Spaulding's exciting victory over Thacher's number one man, Jim Kornell, in a neck-and-neck battle; he was first to finish out of twenty-eight runners. Despite our losses to Thacher, we did defeat other teams such as Cate, Midland, and Catalina Boys' School. Even though we will be losing three of our top runners, our competent coach, Mr. Satterlee, will be able to make a fine team with next year's material.

Although this article is premature in that it was written before the track season began, we trust that the track team will have another fine season. This year's coaches are Mr. Gaines (field events) and Mr. Satterlee (running events). Excellent performances are expected from Steve Dietrich, Rand Wilson, and also Fred Brander, who will be competing in the field events. The team will travel to Cate and possibly to another school which will be holding Condor league track meets. We wish the track team the best of luck in its upcoming competition.

Varsity Baseball 1968

Even though the 1968 Varsity Baseball team has not yet had the opportunity to prove its talents as this article goes to press, we expect to have a highly successful season. Anticipation of success is not unfounded, since last year's did so well with an 8-2 record, finishing in third place in the Condor League standing—and most of last year's team have returned to Laguna as Seniors. The exact positions of this year's Varsity team members have not yet been decided, except that of Sam Spaulding, who will be our starting pitcher. The team is willing and ready to work hard to produce a record which, with Coach Spaulding's professional guidance and inspiration, will parallel that of the soccer team's.

Student Council

This year's Student Council is by far the most effective and efficient council Laguna has had in years. The new student body meetings with the "beef box" is just one of the changes our council has made. The most significant change, however, is the formation of a student advisory committee which advises the school on some of its policies. This gives students a chance to answer searching questions such as how can we improve the girls' sports program, or should the 12th grade have independent studies, or how can all of our school time be put to better use? The success of this council can be attributed to not only the interest that our students have but also to the deep concern that the faculty possesses and, of course, to the wise guidance and council of our faculty advisor, Mr. Reitz.

EL TECOLOTE

This year El Tecolote succeeded remarkably well in the task set for it by the editors, Claire Panosian and Erik Funke. It became a significant tool for improving communications among the administration, students, and faculty. Not only did the paper recap school news, but it also served as a forum for new ideas and plans. Articles by teachers and guest editorials by student leaders were encouraged, and the administration gladly accepted the paper's offer to explain school policy on its pages.

Every afternoon after an issue had been released, one could find many groups heatedly discussing the controversial articles or debating over a letter to the editor.

Mr. Cramer, the paper's advisor, supplied inspiration and encouragement during the production of each issue, and the high quality of writing amply displays the time and effort devoted by the many faithful staff writers of El Tecolote.

A new tradition at Laguna is the literary supplement published by the editors of El Tecolote. Now in its second year, the literary supplement has supplied students with an outlet for recognition of their creative works. The essays, poems, short stories and pen-and-ink drawings chosen demonstrate the fine talents to be found among the students at Laguna.

Congratulations to all who have contributed to the El Tec or to its literary supplement!

Service Club

The Service Club has been one of the most active clubs at Laguna for the past two years, and can proudly say "We try harder." With Clare Taylor as 'our leader' the three projects of last year have been active from the beginning of the year and a new project has been undertaken. Holly Haugh continued to organize the Los Ninos volunteers along with holding large toy drives. Claire Panosian and the Assembly Committee arranged several pertinent assemblies with topics ranging from LSD to Communist China. The Service Club Bulletin had a new flavor of Jeanne Stearns' wit to lighten the shock of each Monday's tabulation of the week's events. The Service Club Job Project under the guidance of David Eddy provided jobs for students and help for parents.

The Service Club has been given a strong foundation in the past two years and will continue as one of Laguna's proudest aspects. Started to promote student activity and enthusiasm, the club has surpassed all expectations and will surely achieve greater heights in years to come.

The Laguna Blanca AFS Club has been in existence only two years and has already sponsored a foreign student. It has been an exciting year for all concerned with the club, which from time to time includes about everybody in the school. Our first student was Hanspeter Knirsch of Germany, and everyone from the most cynical senior to the littlest kindergartener will agree that it was a wonderful experience to have him in our school community. Those who talked to him seriously could not help admiring his sincerity, and those in the lower grades who heard him explain how Santa Claus gets to all the homes on time could not help being charmed.

The activities of the club are designed to raise money, promote interest in the American Field Service, and have fun while doing so. Perhaps the most popular activity is the Gourmet Luncheon put on by the club for the upper school and faculty. We also sponsored a Slide Night for Hanspeter to which the entire Santa Barbara AFS chapter was invited. But the most important benefit is having the student with whom common interests and experiences can be shared.

Sailing Club

With the enthusiastic support of many, the Sailing Club continued its strong program of week-end sailing, instruction, and racing. Interscholastic races included San Marcos, Midland, and Cate, and many of the members raced with the Santa Barbara Sailing Club. The second Film Series was held—"Brigadoon," "Mutiny on the Bounty," "The Bridge over the River Kwai," "A Night at the Opera," "Richard III," and "Five Fingers" were shown with a profit that more than covered the expenses of the club. With the kind donations from friends of the school, a third Blue Jay will almost undoubtedly join the other two, thus making up an official Blue Jay Fleet. A projection into the future (1969) envisions races in San Francisco and San Diego, an official interscholastic program of races, and a sail to Hawaii.

The Sailing Club is open to all interested students in grades 6-12, whether they'd like to learn to sail, or to race with experts. The 1968 officers of the club are Peter Schuyler, Commodore; Erik Funke, Vice Commodore; Terry Baranano, Secretary. The club provides a unique opportunity for the students who enjoy this wonderful sport.

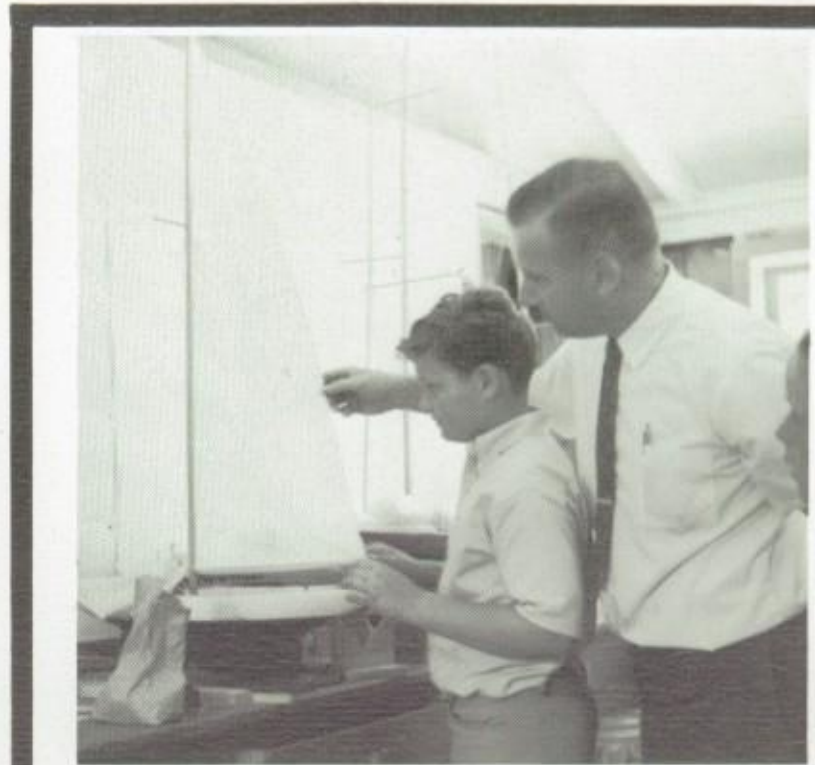

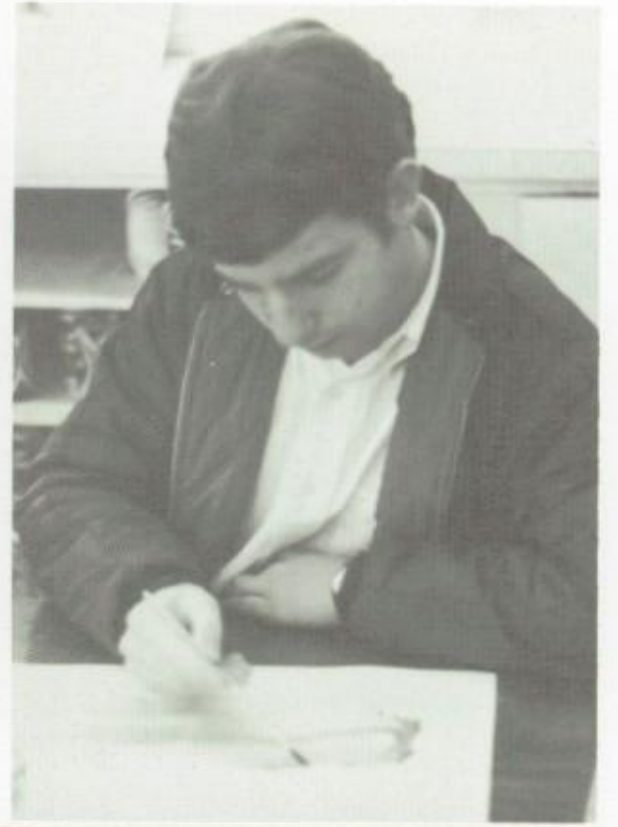

French Club

Our French Club, "Les Miserables," has now completed its third year. We have extended our activities to include lectures in French by outside speakers, French movies on a variety of topics (art, theater, science, and ski movies, to mention a few), and fund raising activities to supplement the Colonel's fines on unreformable English addicts. We have had successful cookie sales and a party sponsored by the Club. Our busy, busy Secretary-Treasurer was Holly Haugh, our Vice-President, Pakie Carleton, and Madame la Presidente, Nicolette Tal. Under the enthusiastic guidance of Colonel Roberson, the French Club has grown in every respect this year. Bonne Chance aux Miserables de l'annee prochaine!

Fall Festival

The "Small, Small World" of the Fall Festival attracted a big, big crowd this year. The tireless efforts of Laguna students, faculty, parents, and friends resulted in much pleasure for everyone present and an impressive profit of $5,342 for the school's scholarship fund, which was considerably more than usual.

The highlight of the Festival was, of course, the senior show. With the help of Mr. Kenward, Mrs. Dietrich, Mrs. Lewis, and Mrs. Starbuck, the seniors were transformed into hippies on their "ditch day" and tripped to San Francisco. Disgusted with the way-out Haight-Ashbury scene, they returned to Laguna, subdued and sedate, and were horrified to find the entire faculty turned-on and tuned-in.

The entire Fall Festival turned-on all its participants, but in a civilized and profitable way!

Neronia

"This year's Neronia was the best ever!" This was the sentiment most frequently expressed after this year's production of that renowned comedy play, Neronia, written, directed and produced by Mr. Gordon Tierney. Mr. Tierney ornamented the cast in a magnificent array of jewels in hopes that the elaborate costuming would conceal the cast's speechlessness, but this precaution proved to be unnecessary as the whole cast did finally learn their lines the night before the performance.

The forsaken and ill-fated Orvil Strang was played by Erik Funke. Other members of the faculty were Daphne Grump (Holly Haugh), Fifi la Tour (Winn Wheeler), Fidel Gilhooley (Mike Adcock), and Cosmo Bunsen (Barry Burnell). Their unfortunate students were Calamity (Nan Adams), Lupe (Cathy Campbell), Maude (Mila Ott), and Gretchen (Jeanne Stearns). Bob Hoag played the illustrious and verbose garbageman Jake. Nero (David Bazemore) was attended by his various slaves played by Kathy Spaulding, Chi-Chi Brien, Pam Holm, Clare Taylor, Pakie Carleton and Robbie Bertrando. Pompous Mabel Van Oren (Claire Panosian) was considering enrolling her nine little tuitions, including Bruno (Rand Wilson), at Laguna when the two Neros appeared. The problem was aptly dealt with by Sergeant Gibson (Roger Goodspeed) and his fumbling assistant, Smedley (Ernie Underhay), as they hauled away the headmaster, Mr. Witherspoon (Tom Lackner). Libby Smyth was kept busy as prompter and Fred Brander handled the sound effects commendably.

The show could not have gone on without the patient and consistent efforts of Mr. Tierney and his assistant, Terry Baranano. Mrs. Pearce choreographed the dance and Susie Reddan helped with the costumes. All in all, this year's Neronia was a tremendous success and set new standards for drama at Laguna.

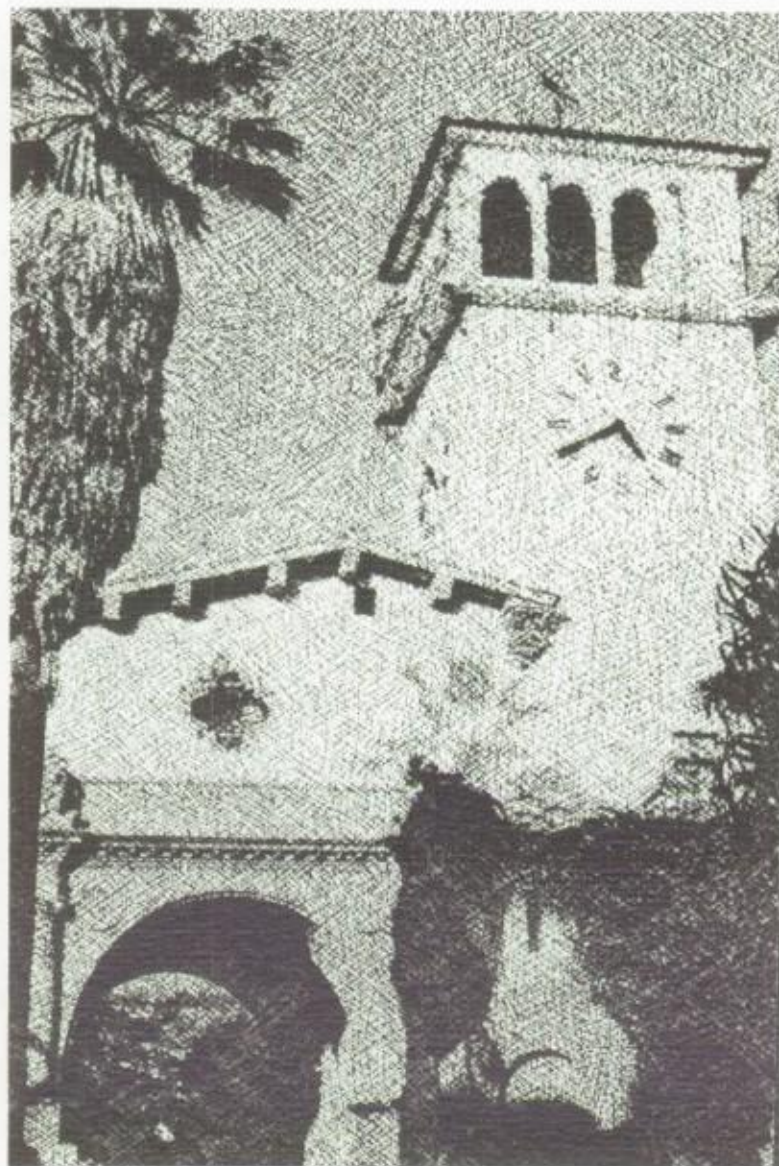

Parties

Laguna's party season was off to a great start with the annual Lapa Lapa Party held at Scofield Park. The ninth grade easily walked off with the intramural volleyball championship before a delicious barbecue dinner. Everyone assembled after dark at the Campbells' house to dance to Laguna's former band, Lincoln's Milk Truck. The next dance was held in the Study Hall with Thacher after a victorious soccer game and a delicious dinner served by the room mothers on the terrace. The unrecognizable Study Hall was soon shaking above the sounds of the Calliope. A dance with Catalina was held in the Study Hall in November with McPhearson's Dresser Door Knob Inc. supplying the happy tunes. The senior class hired the Good Mourning to supply music for the annual Christmas Dance. Even Santa Claus made a surprise appearance offering games and prizes to brave contestants. The Social Council, working under the guidance of Mrs. Reddan, has plans for other activities in the second semester.

"All right, which one of you rats did it?"

"Joan of who?"

"Now hear this!"

Junior Lunch Service strikes again!

"Yes, I'd be glad to tell you: 788, 783, 758, 752, 742, 726.

"Now, Tijuana Tech has some openings."

"I beg to differ with that answer, Rog!"

"I know it's out of uniform, but isn't it pretty?"

"No, I don't want my picture taken!"

Primitive Man Feeding.

"Now once again: 'See Rex run. Run, Rex, run.' "

"I'll have a big stick."

Lose something?

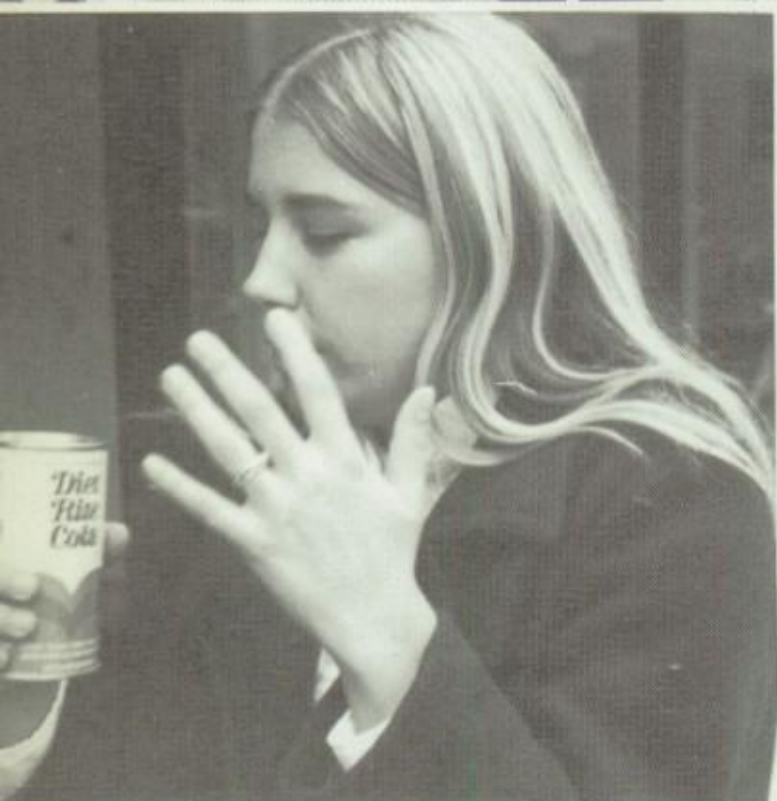

"Greeting from the President. Your friendly draft board regrets to inform you

"Who, me?"

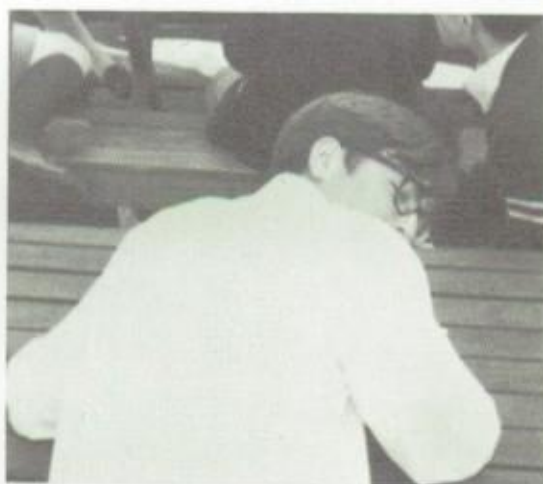

"I just scored 100 on the Time Current Events Test!"

"Now, quiet, Christabel—or this paper bag will instantly devour you."

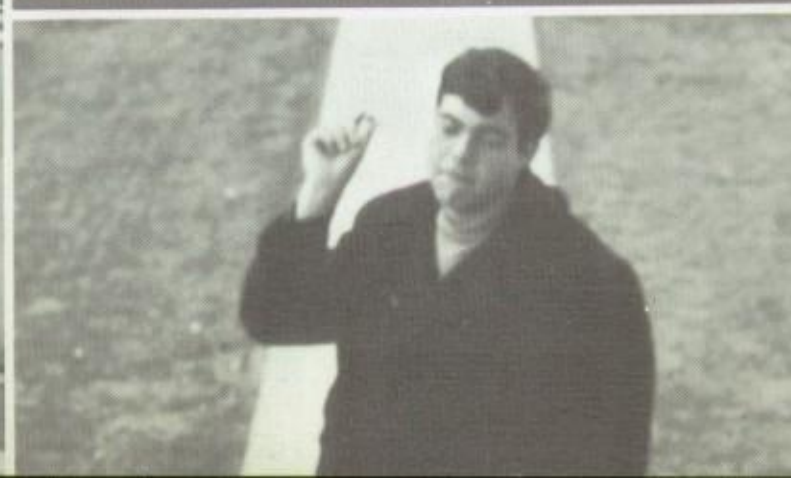

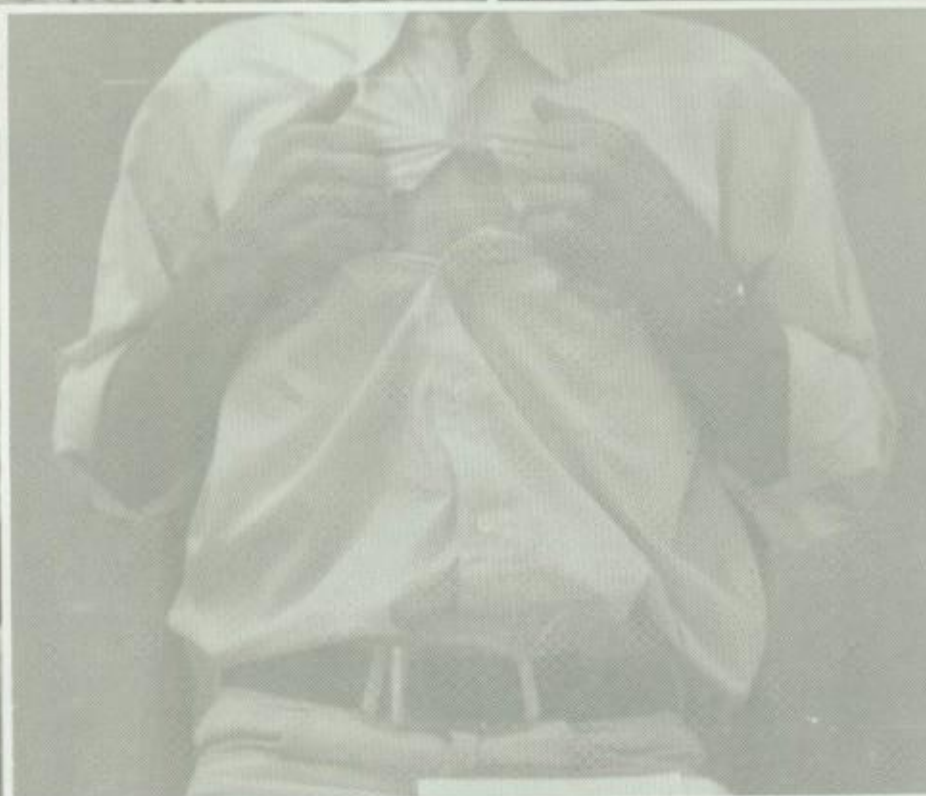

"I don't care if it's fourth period. I'm hungry!"

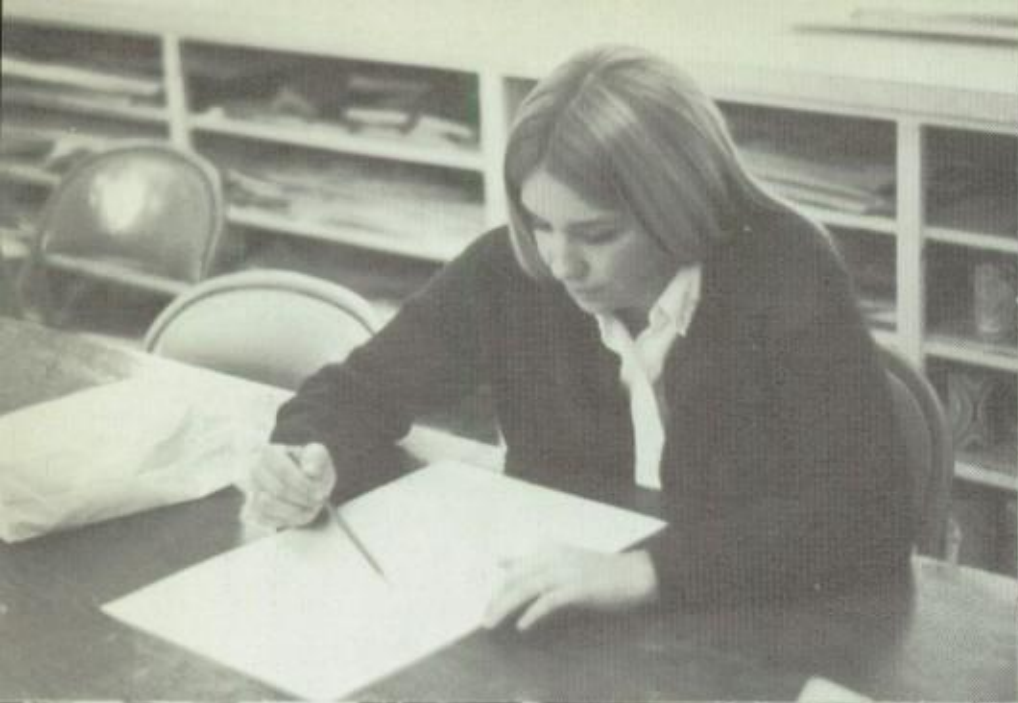

"Sure I support my local ice cream store."

"I've just disproved Schuyler's Third Law!"

"Categorically speaking."

"It was here a minute ago."

"Think it'll ever grow?"

"But it's so ugly!"

"Roughing it."

"Write much?"

"How did you like that test?"

"Little Caesar"

"Only half a worm!"

"Aw, Kate . . ."

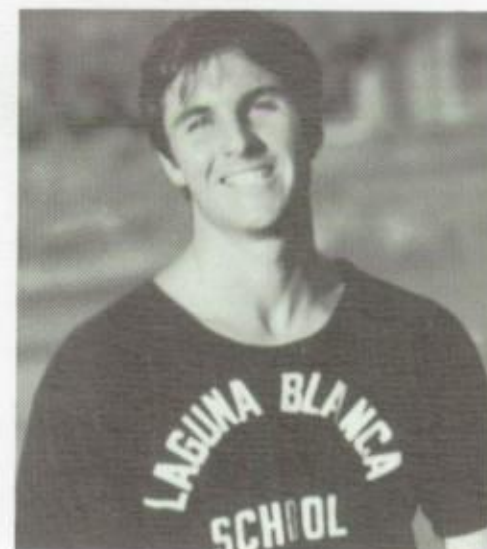

"You never outgrow your need for milk."

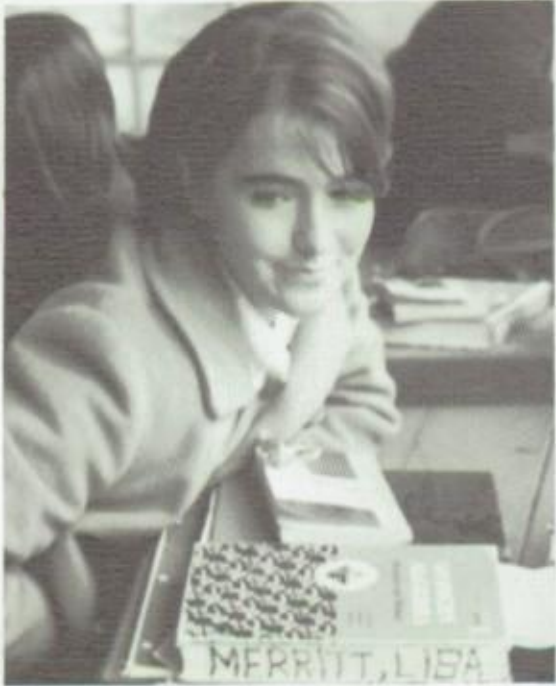

"Study much?"

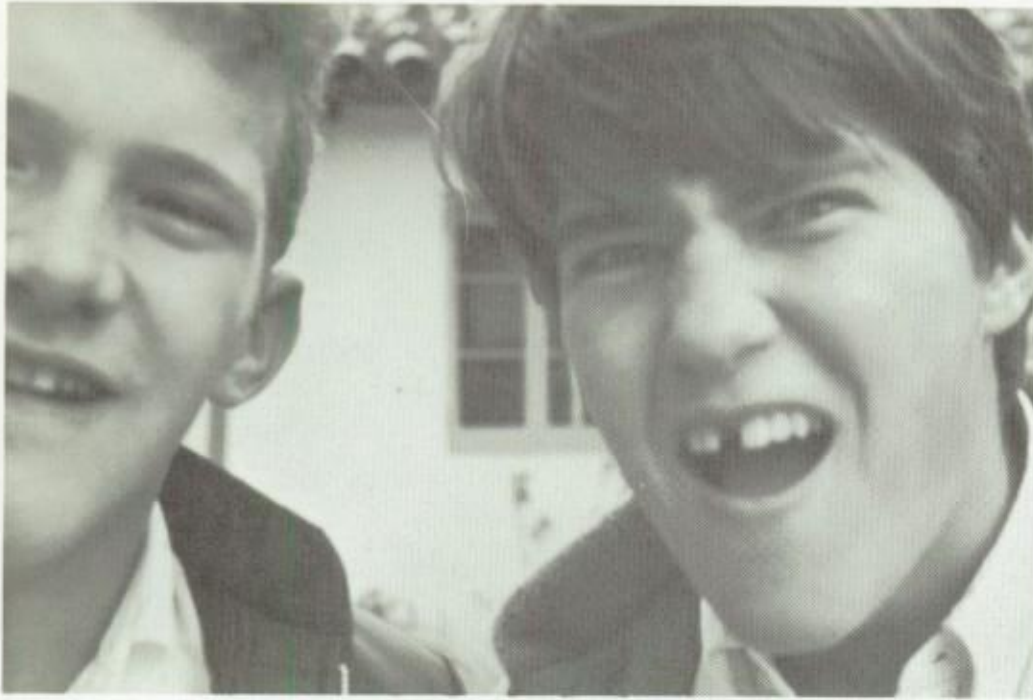

"Cheers!"

"Kornell didn't have a chance!"

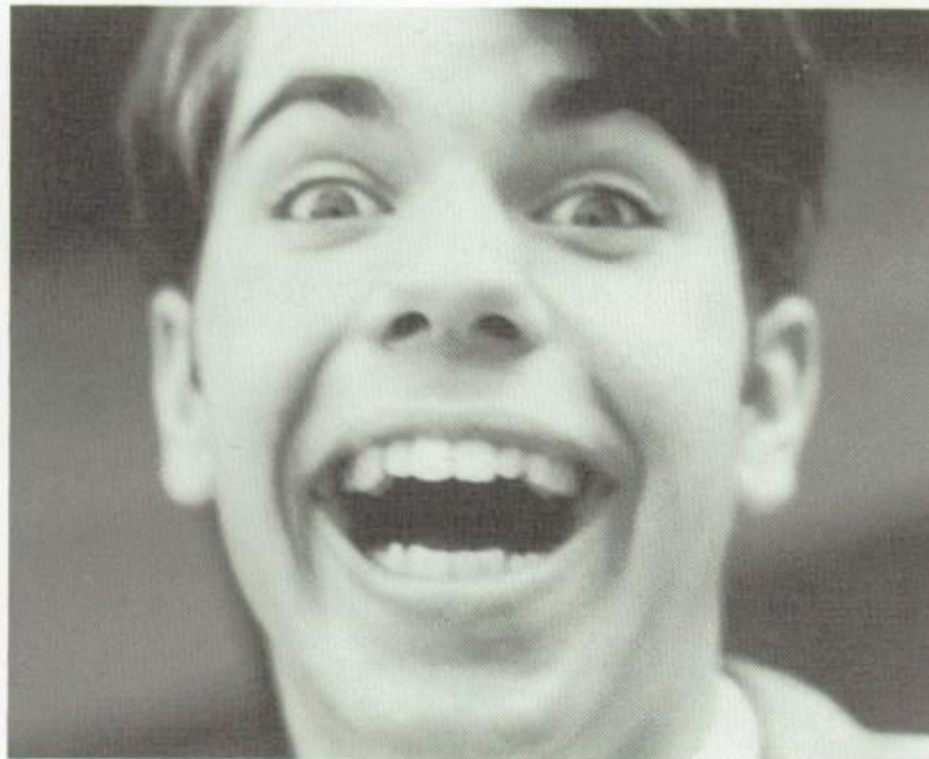

"Look Ma, no teeth!"

Like father like son.

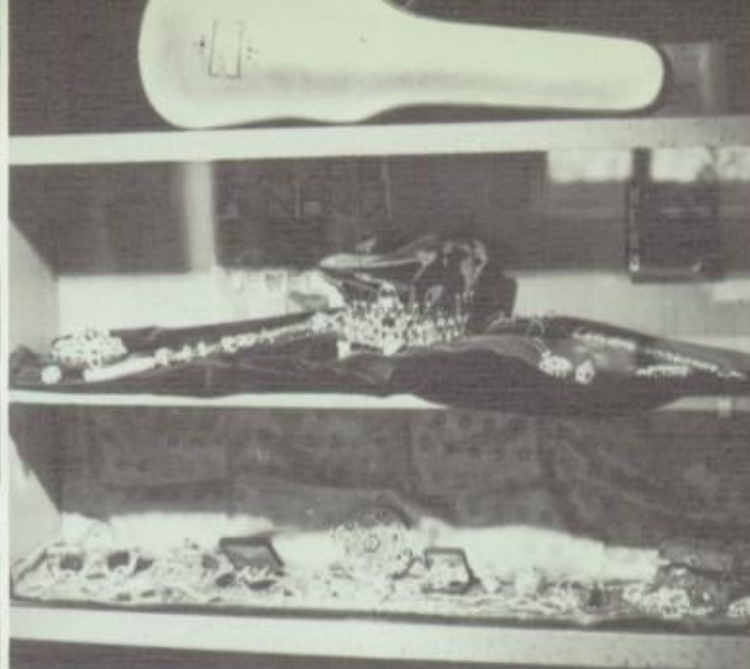

"Oh boy, the ninth grade girls!"

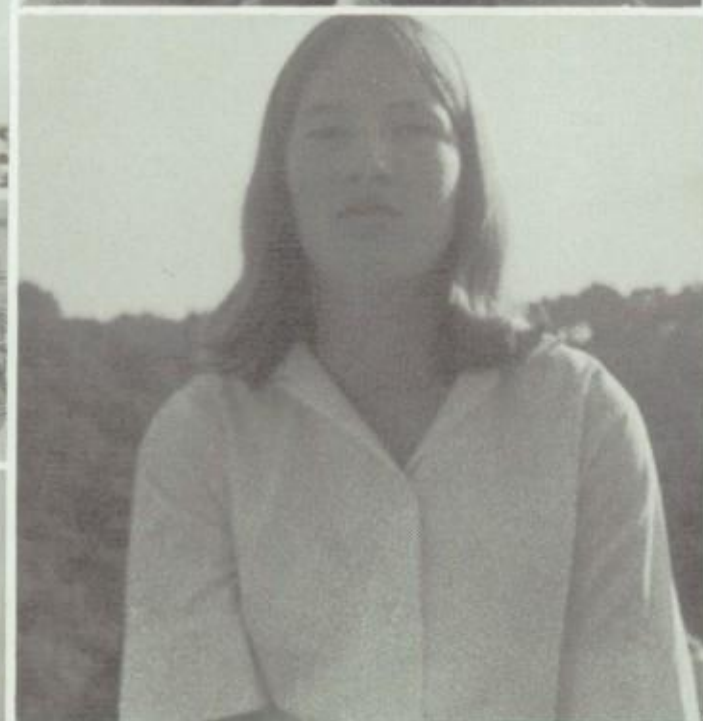

"Wrong kind of glue, Nan."

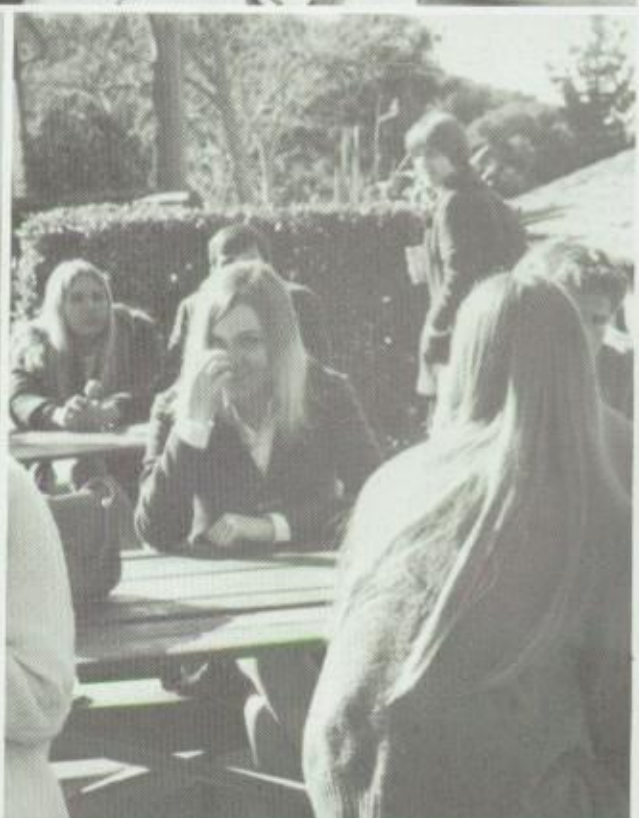

"Sock it to me!"

Guess who?

"Oh, NO!"

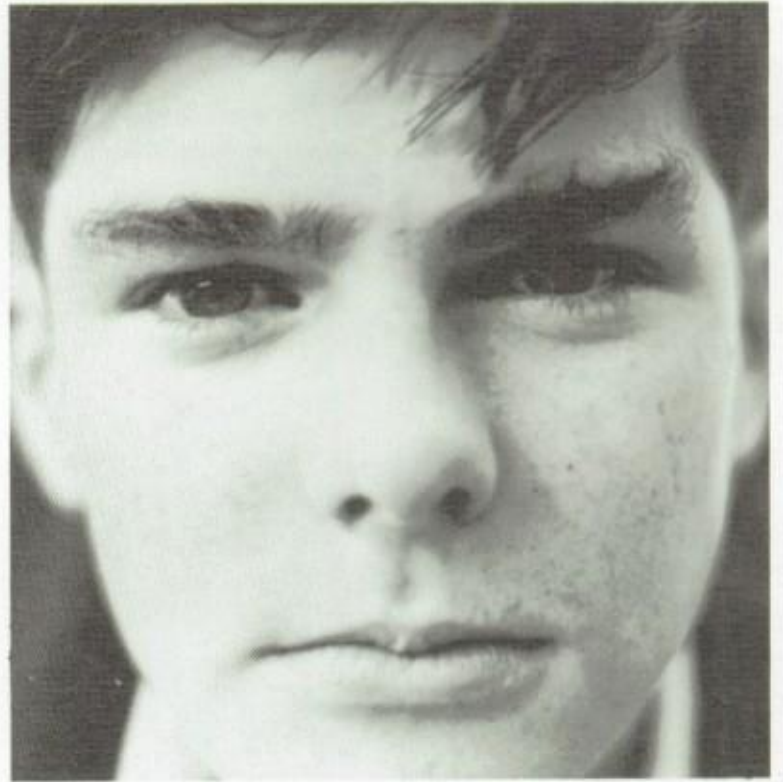

"Don't shoot! Don't shoot!"

"May I show you my little house?"

"Look into my eyes."

"OH YEAH!"

"Under the spreading pine tree, ..."

Oh, what pretty legs!

Final Plea of Insanity

At the beginning of this school year we, the co-editors of La Honda, Steve and Clare, were generally considered to be fairly average, neurotic seniors. However, as the year and our high school days draw to an end, so does our sanity, destroyed in our futile attempt to complete that simple (HA!) task of creating a yearbook. Before we collapse into twitching contortions and seep down the drain of life into the pipes of insanity, we would like to pay our final respects to all those kind people who have cheerily aided us on the way to this delirium; to Mr. Cramer, Mrs. Stedman, Mr. Reddan, Liz, Bloody Mary, Stan Getz, Barry and Wilson's piano playing, Petrini's, the La Honda Staff, Snoopy, and Jack Hayes.

After a year of unmet deadlines, unphotographed pictures, lost ads, utter chaos and confusion, we the deranged editors are forced to humbly acknowledge, as we fall into drooling fascination on the floor, that this has been a truly memorable experience—in fact, unforgettable.
